History is Philosophy Teaching by Example.

It no longer contents itself with acts of the Government and movements of armies. It investigates causes, and it finds these in the character and condition of people. It perceives also, that these depend upon as well, as upon individually, heredity and environment, it investigates, therefore not only the present circumstances, but, also the past development. It shows how the present has grown out of the past, and the future must grow out of the present, in order that they may be shaped aright. It preserves the memory of the lives and works of those from whom the present generation inherits both the idiosyncrasies and individuals of their developed social and civil environment. It regards the men and women of whom it treats as links in the evolution of the ages connecting the past with the future. The man who does not feel himself to be a link in the great chain to transmit life and being, intellectual and moral existence, from his ancestors to his posterity, does not justly appreciate the relations which belong to him. The contemplation of our ancestors and descendants ought ever to be within the grasp of our thoughts and affection.

The past belongs to us affectionate respect, while the future belongs to us no less by affectionate respect, and anticipation of those who are to come after us.

Then only do we do ourselves justice, when we are ourselves true to the blood we inherit, and true to those to whom we have been the means of transmitting that blood.

ANCIENT FLATBUSH TO AIR ITS HISTORY

A weeks celebration of founding 300 years ago.

Old Churches join fete,-

To date from 1654, the bell of one has tolled the death of every United States President. Flatbush, New York has several 18th. century buildings, including the Reformed Protestant Dutch Church, Brooklyn College and Ebbets Field. These sites was a Dutch Village in the 17th. century. The Flatbush Chamber of Commerce arranged a week of celebration in commemoration of the founding.

Actually Flatbush is more than 300 years old.

Eighteen years before testy Gov. Peter Stuyvesant, issued formal patent for the founding on May 27, 1652, Dutch settlers were hacking away at virgin hickory and white oak, in the thick rich = soiled wilderness.

The settlers had bought the forest from the Carnardie tribe of Algonquin Indians in 1636. They had to buy it a second time, in 1670, when crafty Sachem Eskem oppas of the Rockaway Tribe claimed Flatbush as his property. This racketeering chieftain accepted ten fathoms black wampum, ten fathoms of white. a fistful of gun powder, three cans of firey Dutch Brandy and half barrel of Dutch Beer. The Village,- Originally MIDOUT (Mid - Wood) and Vlacte - bos (Wooded Plain) Prospered Mightily. In less than a half century it had 62 men, 72 women and 263 children within its bosky limits, double that population, counting slaves and apprentices.

Two centuries later its population was over 7,000.

Two of the oldest congregations in the United States stand in dignity within its limits,- THE OLD FLATBUSH DUTCH REFORMED CHURCH, located at Flatbush and Church Ave. with its ancient Dutch graveyard, and Flatbush Dutch REFORMED CHURCH, at Kings Highway and East 40th. Street, date back to 1654.

The mellow bell in the Flatbush Dutch Reformed Church is a historic relic. It vibrated in melancholy notes to mark the death of George Washington, and has tolled the passing of every President the country has ever had.

THE STORY OF THE ATEN'S - AUTEN'S

Rev. Thompson, came to the conclusion " The family was Scotch" originally, but, many of its members fled from persecution to France then to the Netherlands.

The Aytoun, de Ayton, Auten, Aten, etc. of Scotland produced many great men, from BARON de AETON, (1307) some were members of Parliament, but, there is no way of connecting the earlier Ayton's with the Dutch Families.

EARLIEST AMERICAN ANCESTORS

SOMERSET COUNTY, NEW JERSEY FAMILIES.

(Somerset County Quarterly)
Vol. 5, P.120

AUTEN

All the AUTEN'S in America are descendants of HENDRICK ATEN, DOESBURG, HOLLAND.

ADRIAEN HENDRICKSE ATON, came to America at an early age, and settled in Flatbush, Long Island in 1651.

The ATONS were families of Scotland, fleeing from religious persecution, first to France, then to the Netherlands and Holland.

Adriaen's father Hendrick Aten, who so far as is known did not come to America.

(note)

A HENDRICK HENDRICKZEN, from Doesburg, holland, who may have been a brother to Adriaen Hendrickse Aton, was married June 12, 1655, in Flatbush Dutch Reformed Church, and had children,

Hendrick

Johannes

Grietje

The two sons became the ancestors of the DUSENBURG families.

descendents took the name of "Sip or Sipp".

Sailed June 21, 1709, from Holland,

JOHANN ATTER and Vro uw and 4 children.

born near DOESBURG, HOLLAND.

Came to America in 1651, and located at Flatbush (Midwout) Long Island.

In 1665, he was chosen constable.

Various land transfers to and by him are on the Flatbush rate sheets, of 1675, 1676, 1683, 1698.

HENDRICK AATON, B. 1661, D. July 19, 1750 (Date from a Bible record).

THOMAS AATON, 1674 - 1757, married Elsje Skillman.

In 1687, these boys, HENDRICK and THOMAS, with their father, ADRIAEN

HENDRICKSE AATON, took oath of allegiance, the loss of the early Flatbush records is undoubtedly the reason why we can not find dates of baptisms of any of the children of ADRIAEN by his first marriage, but, we know them to have been (order not certain).

He and Lysebeth made a joint WILL on March 20, 1696, which was recorded May 9, 1700, at Flatbush.

(Flatbush Records, Liber. A.P. 224)

ADRIAEN'S WILL only names his daughter, "MARRITTEE" and stepson "Lubbert Gysbertsen" so his other children must have been provided for in his life time.

ADERAYON (Adriaen) ATEN,(Oldest son of , Hendrick and Maria DeMott Aten.

ADRIAEN ATEN, married about 1718, JACOBJE MIDDAGH,daughter of, Dirck and Cathelyne VanNest Middagh.

Jacobje Middagh,was born October 24,1693, died May 16,1782,in Northampton County, Penna.

Adriaen was born about 1691, died December 11, 1757.

Adriaen's wife,Jacobje,was a remarkablyly saintly woman,always known as "The Pious Jacobje" Adriaen settled on the South Branch of the RARITAN, on a farm between Centreville and Three Bridges, New Jersey,owned many ago by William C. VanDoren.

Adriaen was a wealthy man for that region,and devoted himself to the care of his plantation,near Readington, New Jersey.

During the Revolution,like most of his Dutch associates,he was a enthusi - astic patriot.

Three of his sons were in the volunteer Corps on Long Island,where one was captured and remained a prisoner full two years.

Patriots carring messages to and from the Continental Congress and the Northern Capitals found his hospitable mansion an ever ready resting place.

A detachment of Washington's Army passing Northward to Morristown, New Jersey,on a hot day,drank the WELL dry.

On May 31,1744, he pprchased 300 acres of land in Northampton County, in Bethel Township, Penna. probably for his eldest son Dirck Aten,who soon after moved there.

None of the Aten's remain in Bethel Township, altho' a few are in the Raritan Vally. Most of Dirck Aten's children Pioneered to the South and West.

Jacobje Middagh Aten's WILL, dated April 11,1775, recorded at Easton, Pennsylvania August 19,1783.

HENDRICK ATEN, B. about 1661, D. July 19, 1750 (Son of, Adriaen Hendrickse Aten) Md. about 1695, MARIA DeMOTT, Baptised, December 22, 1678, at Kingston, New York.

(Daughter of, Michael and Annetje (Westbrook) DeMott).

As Hendrick Aten, took oath of allegiance in 1687, it is evident that Maria DeMott was much his junior.

No date of their marriage has been found, but, it probably was not later than 1695,

On May 22, 1698, there is a record at Flatbush that Hendrick Aten and sister Antie Aten were witnesses at a Baptism.

On October 7, 1707, Hendrick and Pieterie Aten, were witnesses to a Baptism of their sister Annetje (Aten) Skillman's child.

Hendrick Aten, resided at Foster's Meadow, near Jamaica, Long Island, where he owned much land, as various records show.

He died at Foster's Meadow, July 19, 1750, date taken from an ancient Bible record. He lived to be about 90 years of age.

Made a WILL. February 10, 1749, probated February 4, 1751,

In it he names his wife Mary and children.

Children;

Aderayon Aten, B. 1696, Md. about 1718, Jacobje Middagh, B. October 24, 1693.

During the life time of the late AARON J. AUTEN, of North Branch, New Jersey.

and Judge Garretson of Somerville, New Jersey, Editor of the Historical Esquire AUTEN, was born in Somerville, New Jersey, in 1804.

Judge Garretson, was born in the same town in 1806.

AARON J. AUTEN, said he had a distinct recollection of the village in 1812.

Judge Garretson, had only a faint memory of it so early, but, recalled every inhabitant in 1817.

The two made out and felt certain of the correctness of the plan, now published in this number (Somerset County Historical Vol. 7. P. 240).

The plan first appeared in the Somerset Gazette, September 16, 1880.

The award cites Captain Russel Morrell Jr. for meritorious service during the period from May 24, 1944, to July 17, 1944, near Myitkyina, Burma, as follows; As commander, Captain Morrell led his company into combat after a short notice alert. His leadership was especially outstanding during the period from June 13, 1944, to June 16, 1944, when as a result of a bold attempt to strike deep into enemy territory, his company was encircled by the enemy. All Attempts at re-enforcements failed, for three days Captain Morrell led his men in fighting off strong enemy counter-attacks, with standing intense enemy bombardment, including point blank artillery fire.

When the supplies became exhausted on the third day, Captain Morrell led his men by infiltration through the enemy lines to a battalion perimeter.

On July 12, 1944, although suffering from infected feet, Captain Morrell refused to evacuate. He remained five days longer and led his unit in an
